GLORIA J. VIERS

Foreword

We proudly present to you, our fellow classmates, your 1967 THUNDERBOLT. Travel with us through these pages and see that here are your memories...your hopes...dreams...ambitions...heartaches...successes... failures. This was our high school! Each day that you are away from HHS, may this book keep alive the wonderful memories; and may it draw the friends, who were dear to you, back into your thoughts.

"These few brief months will live for us in later years, as we have lived for them today. To be remembered long after we ourselves have been forgotten. The legacy we leave for all to see, the part of us that remains forever here."

To all those who have labored to make this annual possible--our staff, sponsor, and many others--we wish to express our deepest thanks.

Lebecca S. Belcher Delocia J. Vierd

Dedication

Quietly efficient, self-effacing, always helpful and interested in showing us the way-that is how we, the Senior Class of 1967-think of you.

Because of these qualities and your genuine concern for our intellectual development, we dedicate this edition of the Thunderbolt to you,

MRS. VIOLET TARWATER

Mrs. Tarwater, hard at work

With her love for books...

And her love for people.

We Salute . . .

It seems only yesterday I can remember how you kissed the hurt place to make it well, kept my "sweetheart" a deep dark secret between only us two, laughed with me when I needed laughter, and always I could depend upon your sympathy when things weren't going quite right.

Thank you for the laughter, the friendship. Thank you for the tears and the understanding. Thank you for the love, confidence, wisdom, and as strange as it seems to say it, thank you for the discipline that has guided me as a child and as an adolescent. This is the framework you have so selflessly and lovingly laid--encouragement, love, discipline, and hundreds of other memories you have given me through these years. May we always steadfastly strive to fill this framework in the patient way you have laid it for us.

We salute you, MOM and DAD.

Sponsor, Clayton Colley; Co-Editors, Gloria Viers, Rebecca Belcher; Business Managers, Diana Taylor, Glenda Mullins; Chief Typist, Linda Powers; Typists, Patricia Sutherland, Dianah Breeding, Joan Ratliff; Artist, Susie Farmer; Classes Editors, Jeanie Ratliff, Rebecca Edwarda; Organizations Editor, Susie Short; Sports Editors, Darrell Harrison, Donald Anderson; Activities Editor, Ruth Ramey.

We The Annual Staff . . .

We, the Annual Staff of 1967, extend our sincere best wishes to the upcoming students of Haysi High School. We have striven hard and long to make this one of the best yearbooks that the students of Haysi High ever produced. We hope this edition of the Thunderbolt will provide pleasant memories to all students, not only now but always.

Because he has worked so untiringly and given of his ability so willingly, we wish to extend our deepest and sincerest thanks to Mr. Clayton Colley, our sponsor.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent's Message

PAUL W. SKEEN received his A.B. from Marshall University and his M.A. from Peabody College.

I congratulate you on having completed the necessary requirements for graduation from the Haysi High School. I feel it is an honor. It is an honor not given to you, but one which you have earned.

I urge you to continue your education after graduation. I urge you to develop your potential to the fullest. I urge you to make the most of every opportunity. Finally, I urge you to do your best in whatever endeavor you may pursue.

May you always be the type of person who will bring honor and credit not only to yourself but to those who have known you.

Good luck to each of you.

(Der ver Luca)

PAUL W. SKEEN

Principal's Message

C. C. SHORT attended East Tennessee State University, University of Tennessee where he received his B. S.; V.P.I. and the University of Virginia where he received his M. A.

Dear Seniors,

When you entered the eighth grade it was apparent that your class would equal or surpass the records established by the top graduating classes of the past. Congratulation to one and all on exceeding the expectations of the faculty and administration.

Success in high school, however, does not insure future success. This is not the time to rest on your laurels. With the major portion of your life yet in front of you, concentrate on selecting attainable, worthwhile goals; then apply yourself as you have throughout high school, until your goal is reached.

Never be satisfied with "status quo." Accept and take part in inevitable transition. In todays' modern world it is not possible to become stationary; either you move forward or slide backward.

C. C. Short, Principal

Assistant Principal's Message

LEE DEEL
attended Tennessee
Polytechnic Institute where he received his B. S.
degree; he also attended East Tennessee State University.

It has been five gratifying years working with this Senior group. You have gained a step in your life which is of most importance.

I hope your schooling at Haysi will prove to be a key which you can cherish through life. Let your experiences here be ones which will inspire sound decisions and at the same time evade pitfalls of life.

Again, you have my congratulations and best wishes.

A Message from the Guidance Office

MILLIGAN, E.T.S.U. B.S., Univ. of Va., V.P.I., Univ. of Florida. M.A.

Dear Seniors,

I view your graduation with mixed emotions. I shall miss my contact with you. You have added much to the school's program of studies, activities, and athletics. Many of you have been outstanding in scholarship, sense of responsibility, and continuing growth in maturity and knowledge. All of you have formed an integral part in our school program.

I am proud of you for having had the stamina and ambition to ascend this far on the educational ladder. You have acquired a great deal of proficiency; there is much more to be learned.

May you have the strength of character, the faith of your convictions and a reservoir of courage to face whatever is in store for your future.

I shall continue to be interested in your activities, your progress, and your problems.

"Hi fans, no applause just throw money."

"I'd like a cheeseburger, coke, chips."

"I'm not the real Mr. Clean, but I try."

"Cut carefully and quickly and pray hard it fits."

"Boys, don't ever lean on lockers again."

"This business of teaching IS hard work."

"Girls you're looking for Euglena, not his phone No."

"The proper pose for osculation is . . . "

"You would too if you had a hard day like I did."

"Congratulations, you finally passed."

Now the mark of a successful man....

Working on that Saturday night date, Mr. Counts?????

"I do wish someone would move this darn thing so I can see what the class looks like."

"Psst, hurry while he's not looking."

"My name is Chester Piggly-wig."

EULA W. PHILLIPS

Dear Seniors,

The time I have spent with you has been both interesting and pleasant.

It is my hope that each of you will attain the goals you have set for yourself, and once attained, that you will continue to strive for personal betterment.

Keep in mind that to find your destiny you must search; it doesn't rise up unbidden.

Good-bye and good luck to all ninety-nine of you.

Sincerely,

Eula W. Phillips

"Some guys have it and some never will."

"Pucker up quick. I can't hold this pose much longer."

"Get dirt on me and I'll kill you both."

Oh! This darn sticky hair spray.

"We'll never get caught red-handed."

"Skipping class the hard way."

"Why doesn't the other team use Right Guard?"

"She sweeps them off their feet."

"At least it's better than those Atlantic Monthly's."

"The motorcycle kids ride again."

"We're on the outside looking in."

"This must be Monday morning."

"Now why couldn't we do it this way?"

"This is Journalism class girls, not Advanced Biology.

"Sometimes I wish I didn't have so many fans,"

Senior Play Cast

"Oh, No! Siamese twins "

Becky and Marlon in the Senior Play

"Her big moment."

"Studying hard as usual."

"Are those interesting books, girls???!!

"Confucius say, he who studies a lot has a sore back."

"What goes up must eventually come down."

"If you only knew what we know."

"I had him right in the palm of my hand but.....

"Marie, did you break your glasses again?"

"Now the next time you turn that frog loose....."

"Tomorrow, Tomorrow and Tomorrow."

"And here are the judges....."

"Would you believe it, these girls are actually studying?"

"What a way to go!"

"Now I pronounce you man and wife."

Wanda and Vivien riding the Tweetsie Train.

I sat there and waited and waited....

"Good-bye cruel school."

"Is this really the old west?"

Two football stars of HHS.

The mad rush between classes.

"We're going to Broadway."

"This school is really going to miss us."

We, the Seniors....

Farewell

Our years of study, learning, experience, and guidance at Haysi High School are nearing a close.

As we, the graduating class of 1967, bid you farewell, we look back on our years at Haysi High as fond and memorable ones. We will remember Haysi High as a guild of learning and a stepping stone to higher education. We have grown in knowledge and responsibility; graduation is but a beginning along the pathway of life.

At least it can't fight back!!!

Let's play leap-frog.

"Are you sure this is the soda fountain?"

Tired before we start.

"Oh, I hate to write these Dear John letters!"

"Anyone want to disagree with me?"

The bare necessities for a basketball shot.

If you want to be a star, you have to train.

Trigg preparing lunch.

They were right, it is only water.

Pretty ballerina.

I'll just take my toys and go home.

Where the action isn't.

..and to the republicans for Richard Stands...???

"Friends, Romans, Agatha--lend me your ears!" Conn Fleming

"Mr. Jones, I just don't understand. boys or math."
